

CLASS 29

2023-2024 PROGRAM:

Leadership Camden County is an approach to community leadership intended to enhance the social and economic well-being of Camden County by developing an active group of effective leaders.

GOALS

- Enhance the leadership skills of participants to improve Camden County's future.
- Familiarize participants with the community's opportunities, needs, problems, and resources.
- Identify and analyze current economic, political and social forces affecting the community's future.
- Establish professional and collaborative peer relationships.
- Provide a common ground for communications between participants and community leaders.
- Educate participants on how to move people and ideas to action.

Each participant in this program is both a learner and a teacher and is expected to share his or her knowledge and expertise with the group. Leadership Camden County aims to provide an active, hands-on learning experience

Tuition - $475 per participant, must be received by AUG. 18th

Save $25 – apply by July 31 to receive early registration discount

This covers class materials, polo shirt, field trips, continental breakfasts, lunches associated with each session, and the graduation banquet in May.
