Business license:

Exhibitors will be required to purchase a city business license. Please fill out the attached application for a sales license and send your application with an additional $5.00. Please make a separate check payable to the City of Camdenton for the $5.00 license fee. This is also non-refundable.

Vendor responsibilities:

- Collecting and reporting sales tax on merchandise sold
- Attend the show for the entire designated time. Any other provision must be made in advance with approval of the show chairperson.
- Furnish your own tables and chairs. Tables should be draped to the floor and displayed as neatly as possible. Exhibits cannot protrude outside of the designated area. Store all surpluses under your tables.
- Exhibitor assumes the entire responsibility and liability for losses or damages to the Exhibitor's display, equipment and other property brought into the premises. CHS will not be held responsible for any such losses, damages and/or claims.
- Exhibitors will be required to follow all laws, ordinances, exhibition rules and regulations. Violations of the above rules will result in your being asked to leave and prohibits participation in future shows.
PLEASE NOTE THAT THE SCHOOL CAMPUS IS SMOKE FREE!

Items allowed:

- Handcrafted items are encouraged, but some tasteful commercial crafts may be allowed and must have prior approval of a submitted photo before acceptance.
- This is a pre-approval show for first time exhibitors. First time vendors must send 2 photos, one of your exhibit and one of your craft items. Please send a self-addressed envelope for the return of your photos.

Items NOT allowed:

- Use of electrical usage and appliances is limited due to fire and safety regulations.
- We do not allow use of power equipment such as saws, sanders, etc. at the show. We also do not allow combustibles such as large bales or amounts of hay or straw to be used in displays. No open flames.

If you have any questions you may contact Karen Fehrmann at 573-346-9984 or kfehrmann@camdentonschools.org.
